From the DESK Of the DIRECTOR

Whew! I finally have a chance to catch my breath. August was a really busy month with the Annual Gathering and the Stonewall Jackson Jubilee.

Our 24th Annual Gathering was quite a successful event. We had attendees from all over and everyone seemed to enjoy the workshops, the tours, the research and the fellowship over the three day event. One of the high lights this year was the tour to Annameade mansion which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Our quilt contest was quite successful and we had numerous beautiful quilts on display. Lots of good food was also on hand with our lunches prepared by Melvin and Wanda TOLLEY and their crew of kitchen assistants and the evening meals prepared by the Broad Street United Methodist Women.

Now it is time to be thinking about next year. It will be our 25th Annual Gathering and we want it to be really special. If you have suggestions or would be interested in working on a committee to plan the gathering, please let me know at hcpd@hackerscreek.com.

HCPD participated in the Stonewall Jackson Jubilee over Labor Day week-end by selling "sasparilly" and WV Books. We appear to have been fairly successful although final accounting has not been completed as yet. This event has become our major fund-raiser of the year. I wish to thank everyone who participated in the event to help in any way, from loading and unloading the sarsaparilla and books, to pricing, setting up, hauling ice, selling and finally, tearing it all down and putting it away. It is a tremendous undertaking and could not be accomplished without the help of many, many volunteers who spend many manhours over the week-end in making it all come together. Again, I personally wish to thank every one of you.

Now it is time to be planning our fall yard sale to be held the week-end of Sep 30-Oct 1 and also to be looking forward to our Roast Beef Dinner which is to be held on Sunday, Oct 30. Again, Melvin and Wanda will be our chefs for the dinner with lots of help from our members. We hope all in commuting distance will be able to attend. It's a dinner you don't want to miss!

Prose from the PREZ

Hi Folks:

Gathering and Jubilee are over for another year and, by the time you read this, so will be our fall Trash and Treasure Sale and, perhaps, our roast beef dinner.

This signals the time of year when activities here at the Library begin to wind down a little in preparation for inclement weather. However, our staff and volunteers will be as busy as ever with various projects to make out facility better and better.

We have a terrific bunch of volunteers, each one bringing something different to offer. They work hard and are good at what they do. We could not operate without them.

Of course, we also have a wonderful staff. Betty Ann is focused and organized, all the time managing to remain calm (at least on the outside) and cheerful. Jill has grabbed hold of her position as secretary/office manager and has everything well under control (as long as all the machines, computers, etc. are working like they are supposed to). Sue came to us with a willing attitude and has quickly become an integral part of the workings of the organization. All of them just keep on plugging, regardless of what might get thrown in their way or jump up and try to bite them. They are amazing and we are lucky to have them.

As winter sets in, we should all take time to formulate that query about a brick wall that we have. We ALL have them. Maybe, just maybe, another of us has the answer. Jot it down and send it to Joy for the Journal. I am at least as guilty of not doing this as any other member could possibly be. Maybe I should make it a New Year's Resolution and try to get it done before New Year's.

It would also be a good time to extract an anecdote from your research and get it to Joy for the Journal. Maybe a copy of an old letter your grandmother wrote; maybe some pages from a diary from the past. Maybe an interesting story about your ancestor's home town. Again, I am guilty of not doing this- I bet you are, too.

Right now is the time to decide to come to next year's Gathering. Because it will be the 25th, we are hoping to have something really special and hope that many of you who have not made it recently or who have never made it will be there. Personally, I would like for HCPD members to entirely take over my favorite place to stay in Lewis County- Hillbilly Haven, just off the Roanoke exit. This year, the Viellenaves, the Malecs, and I were there. Check it out at hillbillyhavenwv.com. If HCPDers had all of the cabins, we could continue visiting after hours, so to speak.

Also, if you have something you would like to see at Gathering- a class on a specific topic, more visiting time, a tour, whatever- please let me know. You can reach me at ~~304-216-5721~~ or at 304-292-5721 or at 304-216-5721. I am in the process of putting my house up for sale- so I cannot guarantee that I will be at the address at the front of your Journal for very long.

We could also use suggestions for our Christmas raffle.

Later,

HIGH WAY HISTORY

"Marking Our Past"

Submitted by

Paul PETTIT

with assistance from Joe GEIGER of the West Virginia State Archives

"A great source of pride in West Virginia's fascinating...history, the Mountain State's historical highway markers have attracted the interest and attention of young and old ... Since April 1937, when the first sign was placed ... in the state capital, nearly 1,000 West Virginia historical highway markers have been erected to commemorate prehistoric, historic, scenic, and geological sites. From the state's two panhandles to its southernmost regions, historical highway markers grace the roadsides in each of West Virginia's 55 counties."

The West Virginia Highway Historical Marker Program was implemented during the Great Depression to encourage tourism. The West Virginia Commission on Historic and Scenic Markers worked with the State Road Commission, Works Progress Administration, and Federal Emergency Relief Administration to place 440 markers during the first year alone. After World War II, markers were placed at the sites of most state-run facilities and schools. The West Virginia Historic Commission took over the program in 1963. Since the late 1960s, the program has been managed by the West Virginia State Archives, which is today part of the West Virginia Division of Culture & History.

Markers were funded by the state until 1985. Those placed since then have been funded by groups or private individuals. A complete list of guidelines can be obtained from the State Archives. There are two styles of markers, both of which include the State Seal. The traditional cast aluminum is available for $1,325 with the same inscription on both sides or $1,425 with a different inscription on each side. The 80-gauge aluminum markers cost approximately $350. Installation and transportation costs are approximately $75.

The site, property, district, or community honored with a marker must possess some degree of significance in state or local prehistory (archaeology), history, natural history, architecture, or cultural life. The State Archives maintains files on each of the markers. Approximately 1,000 markers have been placed in West Virginia. Unfortunately, many of these files are outdated because markers have been moved and road names have been changed. An updated markers guidebook is available.

However, the recent survey indicates nearly 30% are no longer standing and a majority of the remaining markers are in dire need of repair. Here is a list of missing markers from just four WV counties: Lewis, Harrison, Doddridge, Wood. The last survey was completed in 2001, so there may be additional missing markers of which are not known to the State Archives.

Doddridge County

Doddridge County/Tyler County (WV 18)

Doddridge County/Tyler County (WV 23)

Doddridge County/Harrison County (US 50)

Note: A Doddridge/Tyler marker is located in Middlebourne (Tyler County Museum)

Harrison County

Towers School (In District 4 sign shop, damaged at collar; school no longer there)

"Randolph Mason"

Lumberport

Harrison County/Marion County (US 19) (sign broken by contractor, not in good shape; will try to refurbish over winter (1998-99); construction planned for US 19)

Harrison County/Taylor County (CR 73)

Harrison County/Taylor County (US 50)

Harrison County/Wetzel County (WV 20)

Lewis County

Graves of Heroes (Sign loose on POST; has been broken and re-welded around collar; missing per 2001 survey)

First M. P. Church

Jackson's Mill (missing per 2001 survey)

BENNETT-Camden

Lewis County/Upshur County (WV 4)

Lewis County/Upshur County (US 33) (missing per 2001 survey)

Wood County

Morgan's Raiders (POST & collar standing; no sign)

Old Turnpikes (Sign bent slightly; in DOH shop, Parkersburg)

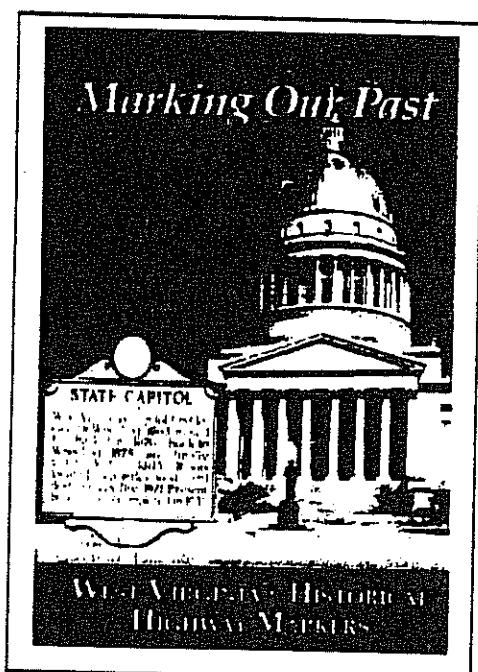

Dunmore's Camp

Wood County/State of Ohio (WV 14, Williamstown)

Tomlinson Mansion

Burr-Blennerhassett

There are also a number of markers in each county that are damaged in some way or simply need painted. There is no state funding to repair or replace markers. Some historical societies and civic groups assume the cost for refurbishing markers in their counties. Missing or damaged markers should be reported to the State Archives.

Now, the information from all these markers is available in one handy volume. With locations and complete inscriptions arranged by county, over 100 photographs, and a brief history of West Virginia's marker program, Marking Our Past is the most comprehensive collection to date of these popular reminders of the state's rich history. The price for mail orders, including tax (for in-state residents), Postage and handling, is $15 per book.

CEMETERY ACCESS

in West Virginia

We continue to hear stories about property owners denying access to family cemeteries located on private property. Four or five years ago, the genealogical community and others worked with the West Virginia Legislature to enact laws permitting access to these cemeteries.

Sometimes property owners are not aware of these laws; sometimes they know and choose to ignore them. This leaves persons wanting to visit local cemeteries little recourse except to turn to the courts and the West Virginia State Code.

To assist you in any problems you might have in gaining entrance to a cemetery in West Virginia for burial purposes, to visit graves of family members or for genealogical research, we are publishing the Code as it pertains to these laws.

West Virginia Code:

37-13A-1. Access of certain persons to cemeteries and graves located on private land.

For the purposes set forth in section two of this article, the state recognizes that the owners of private land on which a cemetery or graves are located have a duty to allow ingress and egress to the cemetery or graves by family members, close friends and descendants of deceased persons buried there, by any cemetery plot owner, or by any person engaging in genealogy research who has given reasonable notice to the owner of record or to the occupant of the property or to both the owner and occupant. The access route may be designated by the landowner if no traditional access route is obviously visible by a view of the property.

37-13A-2 The right of ingress and egress granted to persons specified in section one of this article shall be limited to the purposes of: (1) Visiting graves; (2) maintaining the grave site or cemetery; (3) burying a deceased person in a cemetery plot by those granted rights of burial to that plot; and (4) conducting genealogy research.

37-13A-3. Conduct of persons accessing cemeteries or grave sites; persons liable for damage.

All persons exercising access to a grave site or cemetery under the provisions of this article are responsible for conducting themselves in a manner that does not damage the private lands, the cemetery or grave sites and are liable to the owner of the private lands for any damage caused as a result of their access.

37-13A-4. Limiting the use of motor vehicles on private lands.

The access to a cemetery or grave site on private lands conferred by this article does not include the right to operate motor vehicles on the private lands, unless there is a road or adequate right-of-way that permits access by motor vehicle and the owner has given written permission to use the road or right-of-way or way of necessity.

37-13A-5. Cause of action for injunctive relief.

Any person denied reasonable access under the provisions of this section, including the denial of permission to use vehicular access, may institute a proceeding in the circuit court of the county in which the cemetery or grave site is located to enjoin the owner of the private lands on which the cemetery or grave site is located, or his or her agent, from denying the person reasonable ingress and egress to the cemetery or grave site for the purposes set forth in section two of this article. In granting such relief, the court may set the frequency of access, hours and duration of the access.

37-13A-6. Application of article.

The provisions of this article shall not apply to any deed or other written instrument executed prior to the effective date of this article which creates or reserves a cemetery or grave site on private property and which specifically sets forth terms of access.

ACCOUNTS OF TRIPS MADE
IN 1823, 1833, 1835
FROM OHIO, TRUMBULL COUNTY, BOARDMAN TWP. (LATER
MAHONING CO.)
TO
VIRGINIA, PRESTON COUNTY,
“NEW GERMANY”
(later West Va., Preston Co., Aurora)
by DAVID SIMON
(trans. from German by Mrs. Ralph SIMON, Youngstown, Ohio)
1972
INTRODUCTION & Part 1

These accounts refer mainly to relatives and their families, friends, and neighbors of the SIMON families of Ohio and Pennsylvania, and the RINEHART and STEMPLE families of Maryland and West Virginia.

David SIMON (1811-1870) the author, was the son of Jacob and Elizabeth (STEMPLE) SIMON. His father, Jacob, was the son of Michael<sup>2</sup> SIMON (Adam<sup>1</sup>) and was born 12 January 1786 Washington County, Pennsylvania; died 12 September 1841 Mahoning County, Ohio. David's mother, was the daughter of David and Eva Catherine (RINEHART) STEMPLE and was born 8 February 1790 Aurora, Preston County, West Virginia; died April 1879 Mahoning County, Ohio. David was a school teacher, and a one time County Clerk of Mahoning County, Ohio. He kept diaries and school records, the latter being interspersed with family data, all written in German.

The interesting aspects of these accounts are the mode of travel, the routes followed, the accommodations that were available, finances involved, and last but not least, the feeling of the warm receptions by relatives and friends to whom these visitors were a welcome sight.

An account of a trip to Preston Co., Virginia taken from David SIMON's Daybreak - 1826, Boardman Township, Trumbull Co., Ohio

September 1826

12 In the morning Father and I went to Poland. David ZEDAKER bought 2 young oxen from us for $16 out of the store. He bought $12.72 worth and got $4 in money. He now owe David 72¢. Among the purchases was a new saddle for $10.50. In the afternoon I took iron to the smithy for horse shoes.

13 Father went to Mrs. YOUNG's. We wanted to get Maria YOUNG to keep house, but she could not come.

14 We took our horses to the smithy at Peter WENSETLER's and had tw shod all around and one in front. Father arranged with Ester HUEHERMAN to keep house for 50¢ per week in money. Rained at times and cool.

15 In the morning my parents, Andrew SIMON (son of Adam) and I set out for New Germany in Virginia to visit my grandparents and our relatives. Around 11 o'clock at night we arrive at Uncle Christian EASTERDAY's in New Somerset and stayed there overnight.

16 We stayed there until nearly evening. Father had one of the horses shod behind. Then we went on to Uncle John RINEHART's, which is four miles south of New Somerset, and stayed there overnight.

17 We stayed there until nearly evening, then we went to Andrew ALT's, four miles north of Steubenville and stayed overnight. Cloudy, rany and cool.

18 We traveled as far as Ludwig HEWITT's, 3 miles north of the town of Washington, and overnighed there.

19 We traveled to Uncle Michael SIMON's and then two miles further to Uncle Andrew SIMON's, 7 miles southeast of the town of Washington, and stayed there overnight.

20 We traveled through Brownsville as far as Uniontown and stayed at an inn, The Golden Swan, overnight.

21 By 1 o'clock we were over Laurel Hill. We wanted to travel about 30 miles more to get to Martin REIDENAUER's. Four miles from there night fell upon us, so we bargained with a man to show us the way for 25. One mile this side of Martin's went up the Cheathill and it was so dark that Mother and her horse fell down a little hill. Her saddle and umbrella were mashed to pieces and Mother was quite badly hurt, although no bones were broken. The horse remained unhurt, so to speak. We got Mother to Martin's with difficulty.

22 We were at Martin RIDENOUR's. Mother was bled. Andrew SIMON went on to our relatives to let them know that we were in the vicinity.

23 In the morning Grandfather and Grandmother STEMPEL arrived at Martin's. In the afternoon we put Mother on a horse and we traveled with my grandparents the 14 miles to their home.

From the 24th of Sept. to the 10th of Oct. . .

We were at Grandfather STEMPEL's and visited our friends and relatives in the neighborhood. They were all well except for Uncle Jacob RINEHART's wife. She was quite ill while we were there. During this time Father and I gathered 2½ bushels of chestnuts and sold them on the 9th to Mr. GRIMES for 75¢ a bushel in store-get. Grandmother presented me with a vestpattern, Aunt Susanna with a neckscarf and Aunt Charlotte with a pocket knife.

10 We took our leave from there and traveled toward home. In the evening we arrived at Martin RIDENOUR's and stayed there.

11 As we rode as far as Mr. WHEELER's at the foot of Laurel Hill and overnighted there. On the way down we had fed the horses at this place...

12 We rode over the mountain as far as Mr. GRAFF's in the town of Brownsville, put the horses under the care of an innkeeper and stayed overnight at Cousin WISE's.

13 We traveled as far as Uncle Andrew SIMON's and stayed there overnight.

14 In the morning Andrew SIMON and I went with other relatives to the marketplace in the town of Washington. After that we went back. Toward evening we went to Uncle Michael SIMON's and stayed there.

15 We went to Uncle Michael's to their graveyard,<sup>1</sup> from there to Uncle Andrew SIMON's, and then back again to the Michael SIMON's. In the evening we traveled as far as Ludwig HEWITT's and stayed there overnight.

16 We rode as far as Andrew ALT's and overnighed there.

17 We rode to Uncle John RINEHART's, stayed there a while and then went on to Uncle Christian EASTERDAY's.

18 We traveled to four miles on the north side of New Lisbon and stayed at George SIMON's overnight.

19 In the afternoon we arrived safely home again.

DESCRIPTION OF A JOURNEY TO NEW GERMANY in Preston County, Virginia

October 1833

7 In the afternoon around 2 o'clock Aunt Rebecca and her son, Rinehart SIMON, in a little wagon and my mother and I on horseback set out from Uncle HENRY HEWITT's and arrived sometime after 4 o'clock at the Rev. H. SONNEDECKER's (about 12 miles) and stayed there overnight. It rained almost the whole way.

On the 5th of this month I—David SIMON—was 22 years old.

8 We traveled through New Lisbon as far as an inn called the Center Hotel, a miserable— lacking place where they were having an Election. I bought a pack of eats for 12½ and foddered our horses. Then we rode through Wellsville to New Somerset in Jefferson County and stayed at Uncle Christian EASTERDAY's overnight. They were well.

Cloudy, for the most part, and cool.

9 A.M. I went with several of my cousins to Grandfather EASTERDAY's Winter Apple Picking. P.M. I was at Uncle John RINEHART's and, in the evening, at Cousin Metcalf WINN's for an Apple Cutting. There were eleven young men and eight girls there. Mother went in the company of Aunt Anna Marie EASTERDAY to Martin EASTERDAY's for a Quilting etc.

Overcast, and agreeable.

10 A.M. Mother and I went to Uncle EASTERDAY's P.M. We went to Uncle John RINEHART's. She stayed there overnight and I stayed at Samuel RINEHART's.

At times it rained, and cool.

11 We rode on through Steubenville and at the bottom of the city were taken over the Ohio River in a horse boat for 50¢. From there we traveled through Independence and Middletown and stayed at Ludwig HEWITT's overnight. A very hard frost in the morning.

12 In the morning I paid 25¢ and RINEHART, 25¢. Then we rode through the town of Washington to Uncle Michael SIMON's, where we arrived about 1 o'clock, and stayed overnight.

It rained and stormed nearly the whole day.

13 We rode through Hillsborough, Belleville and Centerville and foddered the horses several miles west of Brownsville at a brick tavern. Then on over the new bridge to Brownsville. It has three lanes, is over 700 feet long and over thirty feet above the water. I paid 12½¢ and RINEHART 18 3/4¢. Then on—one and a half miles on the east side of Uniontown—to a little town with the name, Monroe, and stayed at Norris' Tavern overnight. Today we saw many travelers and rode part of the way with a man who had came from the western part of the State of Illinois (700 miles west of Wheeling) and was going on to Washington City. His horse was badly galled from the saddle.

Agreeable weather.

14 Mother and I paid $1.12½. Our horses got only sorry care. Then we traveled about 19 miles to a little past Mr. Brown's Tavern. Then we turned off the Turnpike to the right and got ourselves and our horses fed at Mr. MAYER's for 50¢. Then on through Selbysport, a well-nigh unnoticeable little town, over the Youghagany (sic), over the Bearcreek by Furnace, over almost impassable roads to Mr. WHITE's, about 2 miles from Furnace, where we stayed overnight. Today we saw a herd of cattle of several hundred head. From Brownsville on, as far as we rode on the Pike, it was covered almost entirely with finely beaten limestone several inches deep, and there were still a great many men working on it.

15 In the morning Mother and I paid 50¢. Then we rode 19 miles over almost deserted hills and valleys to Mr. ARMSTRONG's. There we saw a flock of sheep of about 800 head. And from there, on to Uncle George RINEHART's in the State of Maryland, where we limped in along about 3 O'clock. There were well—and delighted. We stayed there overnight.

For the most part cloudy, and lovely.

We went once over the Deepcreek, and several times over the Yough.

16 In the morning Mother and I went on and about noon we came to Grandfather D. STEMPLEL's in Preston County, Virginia. they were well—and overjoyed. P.M. I was also at Uncle John D. STEMPLEL's; he lives only a little way from Grandfather.

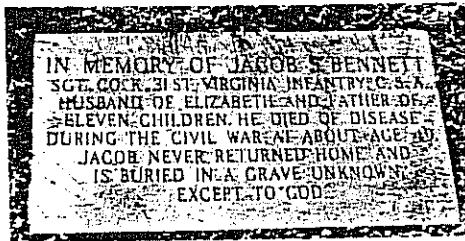

It rained quite a lot.

The Mystery of Jacob S.

BENNETT

by Ralph P. BENNETT

A gravestone recently placed in a Barbour County cemetery reads, "To the memory of JACOB S. BENNETT, Sgt. Company K, 31st Virginia Infantry, C.S.A". The last line states, "Jacob never returned home and is buried in a grave unknown, except to God". Like tens of thousands of other Confederate soldiers Jacob was denied the honor of a known grave. This article discusses his life and my quest to discover his final fate.

Barbour County and Confederate Army service records indicate that JACOB S. BENNETT was born about 1813 in the Glade District of what is now eastern Barbour County.

Jacob was son to ASA and RACHEL (JOHNSON) BENNETT. A property appraisement in the Randolph County records indicates that Asa died in 1814, listing his brother WILLIAM as the administrator and brother JESSE as surety for the administration of his estate. Asa's inventory shows him as a farmer with few assets and likely residing in the home of a relative.

JACOB S. BENNETT's family moved to the area from Fauquier County, Virginia in 1806, following the death of his grandfather, also named JACOB BENNETT. An estate settlement for Jacob BENNETT of Fauquier County (WB 4, p.138) indicates that he held a middling-sized estate with one male slave. Following Jacob's death in 1805 his wife Sarah and children moved to what is now Barbour County.

REV. SIMEON HARRIS married JACOB S. BENNETT and ELIZABETH GAINER on November 6, 1833. According to Barbour and Randolph County census and land records, Elizabeth was the daughter of JOHN & SUSANNA GAINER. JOHN GAINER, an 1812 war veteran, was born in 1791 and died Barbour County May 6, 1880. Susanna was daughter to JACOB & MAGDALENA EASTER (OASTER)

JACOB S. BENNETT was apparently an industrious and successful farmer. Barbour County tax and property records at the Library of Virginia indicate he purchased 60 acres on Sugar Creek in 1838 and 400 acres on Laurel Creek in 1858 near Tacy, Barbour County. A BENNETT family is still in residence in the immediate area. By 1860 Jacob and Elizabeth had given birth to eleven children including one daughter who had died in infancy.

As social and political tensions increased with the approach of the Civil War, meetings were held at the Valley Furnace iron foundry to promote the cause of secession from the Union. In response to directives from Virginia Governor Letcher, Company K, ('The Mountain Guards'), 31st Virginia Volunteer Infantry, was formed at Meadowville, Barbour County on May 18, 1861. This company consisted of men from that village and well as Valley Furnace and Nestorville. The newly enlisted men elected JACOB S. BENNETT, then 48 years of age, Orderly Sergeant. (1st Sgt.)

When passions high and flags flying the men of Company K marched to Philippi to join other Confederate units. Jacob's son, JONATHAN P. BENNETT, and a cousin, JESSE T. BENNETT (b. 1839, & son of WALDO J. & MARY ANN FITZWATER BENNETT) also enlisted in Company K.

Colonel GEORGE PORTERFIELD was sent to Philippi by the fledgling Confederate States Government to organize this poorly equipped force, consisting of five infantry companies and several units of cavalry.

In the early morning hours of June 3, 1861 Union forces routed Confederate troops at Philippi who retreated in disorder to Huttonsville. Philippi was the first significant land battle of the Civil War and perhaps the most exciting event in the city's history. The Confederate flag that had flown above the Philippi Courthouse since January of 1861 was lowered for the last time. Except for a brief occupation by Confederate cavalry forces during the Jones-Imboden raid in May 1863, Philippi remained in Union control.

From the time of the retreat from Philippi, Jacob and the men of these Confederate regiments became refugees from their own homes. Family and loved ones lived within Union lines and were at the mercy of their enemies. An irregular Confederate postal service did exist and men often traveled obscure mountain trails to visit their homes and family at the risk of capture or death.

Jacob continued in his capacity as Company K, Orderly Sergeant. In the book 'Samuel Woods and his Family' by Ruth

WOODS DAYTON, a letter written by Mrs. SAMUEL WOODS to her husband in October 1861, states that "Mrs. BENNETT receives a letter from Jake every week or two". The Roy Bird Cook Collection at West Virginia University contains a court marshal held by the 31st Virginia Regiment at Camp Allegheny, Pocohontas County, on January 28, 1862. 1st Sergeant JACOB BENNETT served as a witness for the prosecution against Private GEORGE KELLER of Company K, 31st Virginia for dereliction of duty.

In May 1862 Jacob and the 31st Virginia joined the army of General Stonewall JACKSON in his Valley Campaign, in which Confederate forces fought in many actions and marched over 400 miles in 32 days earning them fame as Jackson's 'Foot Cavalry'.

On June 9, 1862 the 31st Virginia participated in the Battle of Port Republic, an action that cost the regiment over 50% casualties. Corporal JESSE T. BENNETT, the 21-year-old cousin of Jacob, was killed in action during this battle and has no known grave.

Jacob's service record shows that he was medically discharged on June 14th at Camp Mount Meridian near Port Republic for general disability and "disease of the heart from which he often suffers very much". He received his final army pay on June 16th as a Private, which may indicate that he had been reduced in rank due to his inability to carry out his duties as Orderly Sergeant for health reasons or was possibly voted out of office during a Regimental election held on May 1, 1862. At that time of our history 49 years of age was counted as old and Jacob had done well to survive a brutal winter at 4,400 ft. Camp Allegheny and the rigors of Stonewall Jackson's Valley campaign.

The oldest member of Co. K was Jacob's cousin, 63-year-old Fife Major GEORGE WASHINGTON GAINER (1799-1865, son of BRYAN K. & RACHEL BLACK GAINER) of Montrose, Randolph County, who was medically discharged for "old age and debility", the same day as Jacob. George had married PHOEBE SCHOOVER on July 8, 1823 and is buried in the Primitive Baptist Cemetery on Leading Creek near Montrose. The two men likely traveled together along the Staunton-Parkersburg Turnpike to their Barbour County homes.

Following his army discharge Jacob returned home to his Laurel Creek farm but his return was to be brief. His C.S.A. record indicates that he surrendered himself at the Union Army command post in Philippi on July 3, 1862. Realizing that he would be liable to arrest he perhaps hoped that his medical discharge certificate would allow him to remain on his farm with his wife and children. This was not to be. On orders of the Union Provost Marshall Major JOSEPH DARR Jr. he was arrested on charges of "Belonged to the 31st Virginia Infantry", and was taken to the Athenaeum Prison in Wheeling and then transferred to the Union POW facility at Camp Chase, Columbus, Ohio.

By this time of the Civil War it was Union Army policy to arrest all individuals suspected of Confederate activity unless they made an oath of loyalty to the Union and posted financial bond. During the years of the Civil War families and neighbors were divided by their different loyalties creating a legacy of mutual distrust and hatred that would last many years.

There is no surviving evidence as to Jacob's physical and emotional health at the time of his incarceration. Certainly it must have been devastating to be again separated from his home and family after a reunion of less than two weeks. It is clear that he chose not to sign the loyalty oath to the Union as a means of securing his freedom from imprisonment.

Fortunately for Jacob his stay at Camp Chase was to be short. On July 22, 1862 Union and Confederate governments signed the Dix-Hill Prisoner of War Exchange Cartel. Under its provisions all prisoners of war were to be exchanged at either Aiken's Landing, Virginia, near Richmond, or Vicksburg, Mississippi.

Jacob and about 1000 other prisoners were paroled for exchange and left Camp Chase for Vicksburg on August 25, 1862. The POW's traveled first by rail to Cairo, Illinois, and on August 28th, approximately 3,900 Confederate prisoners from Camp Chase and other Union prisons were loaded onto four paddle wheel steamers for their journey down the Mississippi River.

On September 11, 1862 the Union flotilla reached Young's Point, Louisiana, 12 miles north of Vicksburg, the point designated for prisoner exchange. US National Archives sources state that Jacob and 1020 others were duly exchanged aboard the steamer John H. Done.

Mississippi State Archives (Jackson, Ms.) tell us that the Confederate exchanged prisoners were then taken by rail to a camp near the fairgrounds in Jackson, Mississippi to be held awaiting completion of the formal exchange process. There were over 300 western Virginians held in Jackson.

In a letter (Official Records of the War of Rebellion, Series II-Vol. IV) written to the Confederate Secretary of War in Richmond, DAVID BOSTON STEWART (later Major 20th Virginia Cavalry, C.S.A.) of Monongalia County wrote; "Sir: Having just returned from Camp Chase, via Vicksburg, Miss. Allow me to call your attention to a few facts regarding the Virginia prisoners who were released the same time as myself....These troops principally from the mountains of Virginia, are exposed to all the diseases incident to that climate at this season of year. Great numbers of them were already sick when I left and if anything could be done to alleviate their condition it certainly could do the service no harm."

I have been unable to find any other evidence concerning Jacob's life after his arrival in Mississippi. An exhaustive search of many years of primary and secondary sources, archives, family records and every other conceivable resource has revealed nothing. There is a strong BENNETT family oral history tradition that Jacob died of disease but no other evidence is available.

C.S.A. service records for members of the 31st Virginia Infantry show that some of these POW's had returned to their regiment at Port Royal, Virginia by October 1862, while others were admitted to Richmond military hospitals. The C.S.A. service record of Sgt. JOHN J. VINCENT, Co. A, 31st Virginia, shows he died of typhoid fever in Knoxville, TN. while in transit from Vicksburg, indicating the route taken by these soldiers to the Richmond area.

Research into Confederate records is always vexing and the unsettled social and political conditions within the new state of West Virginia following the Civil War make research difficult at best.

As Jacob's memorial gravestone states, "Jacob never returned home and is buried in a grave unknown except to God". The final fate of Jacob S. BENNETT will very likely remain a mystery. Jacob was a man who probably never traveled far beyond Barbour County, yet his final journey from which he never returned, took him hundreds of miles to places he had never dreamed of experiencing. It is my hope that he died among caring friends. Yet, so many Confederate soldiers perished along a lonely roadside with no other person to witness their passing or hear their last words of love for their families.

So, my family mystery remains unsolved. Yet, in my lifetime, even within the last 20 years, the answer was available to me from my living relatives.

I will end with a plea for the great importance of recording the history and knowledge of those family members still among us. The knowledge they possess of those gone before often passes with them and will be lost to those of us who struggle to unravel the mysteries of our ancestors.

CLARENCE W. POLING

Clarence W. POLING<sup>2</sup> Electrical engineering, that branch of mechanical engineering which included the application of electricity to mechanical and industrial pursuits, as derived from other source of energy, is one of the most difficult of the professional callings. The education and training of the engineer in modern times have called for the establishment of technical schools and courses in engineering in the large colleges and universities, these schools providing the students with the theories of mathematics, mechanics and engineering, and by means of extensive laboratory and outside work provide him with practice in the design, construction and use of modern engineering appliances. It was through such a hard and intensive routine of training that Clarence W. POLING was forced to go before he entered upon the practice of his profession. His training, however, was thorough and comprehensive, and he is now engaged in a successful professional business at Logan, where he is likewise the sole owner of a large electrical supply business.

Mr. POLING was born December 23, 1883 at Nestorville, Barbour County, West Virginia, and is a son of Rev. HAMILTON and Almira (JOHNSON) POLING. His father, who was for forty-three years a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, died January 10, 1910, while his mother makes her home at Morgantown, this state. Of the nine children in the family seven are living. Clarence W. POLING received his public school education at Mount Morris, Pennsylvania, following which he pursued a four-year course of study at the normal school at Fairmont, West Virginia and graduated with the class of 1901. Mr. POLING next entered the University of West Virginia, where he finished a two-year course in electrical engineering, in sixteen months, and for the following two years was a student at Carnegie Technical Institute, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, finishing in 1905. In order to further prepare himself for a business and professional career he also took a special bookkeeping and stenographic course at Elliott College, Wheeling.

Mr. POLING began his real professional career in 1907, when he became identified with the Williamson Light and Ice Company at Williamson, West Virginia, where he had charge of rebuilding the plant, a work necessitating the expenditure of some $100,000. Upon the completion of this contract he became in 1909, master mechanic for the Jackson Iron and Steel Company of Jackson, Ohio and in 1912 settled down at Logan, where he made and executed the plans of the Logan Electric Company for the reorganization of the company, which now bears the name of the Appalachian Electric Power Company, to which style it was changed in 1926. Mr. POLING had left the Logan Electric Company in 1914, at which time he opened an office in the Holland Building at Logan, where he has since followed his profession independently as an electrical engineer. He has carried through many important projects in various parts of the state and Ohio, stands high in his calling, and belongs to a number of professional bodies. In 1925 he established an electrical supply business on Coal Street, of which he is the sole owner, this being a modern establishment carrying at all times a stock of at least, $10,000 worth of electrical supplies and appliances. Mr. POLING is a Scottish Rite Mason and a member of the Knights of Pythias. He belongs to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Logan and to the Board of Stewards thereof. Politics have never played an important part in his career, although he is well-informed as to public affairs and takes an active and helpful interest in all movements pertaining to the welfare of his adopted community.

In January 1908, Mr. POLING was united in marriage with Miss Clara STRICKLER, who was born at Philippi, Barbour County, West Virginia, and died in 1920. To this union there were born two children: Clarence W., Jr., born February 22, 1909; and Rosalind, born August 2, 1910. Mr. POLING married in June, 1920, Miss Reba BAKER of Logan County. There have been no children born to this union.

He had a son, Samuel H. BONNETT born in 1825 and married Elizabeth LEDSOME. Their son was Theodore BONNETT, my great great grandfather. Jacob H. and family moved to Wirt/Wood County. How, where, when???? Any information about them would be appreciated. Also I would like to know about the GOFF brothers. We are supposed to be related according to my grandfather Russell Ray BONNETT. My mother's name was Dora BONNETT she had one sister Marie. Grateful for any info. 8. I am looking for a marriage date and maiden of wife for Solomon CROSS born 1778-1780 PA to Lovina Unknown born about 1775 VA. They were married by 1 Feb 1808, when their first son, Isaac, was born. He was born in VA but exact location is not known, he died 1854. Since Isaac and Lovina were born in VA I am working on trying to find the marriage in VA. I have checked Wood Co. WV since that is where I first found him on a 1822 Tax List for Wood Co. I can't find him listed on any 1820 census. I have checked the Wood Co. tax lists for 1802 thru 1820 and 1822. Solomon does not show up until 1822 nor does any other CROSS family. This fits with the land deed I found for him in Wood Co. for 1821. He must have lived in another area of VA/WV before coming to Wood Co. If anyone has any VA/WV marriage records I would appreciate a check for Solomon CROSS. I have a lot of information for Solomon starting from 1822 until his death in 1877 and will be happy to share it with anyone working on this line. 9. PICTURE ID NEEDED: My grandmother's name was LuVicy Ann CARR WALTON. I found some old photos with my mother's things and I'm certain they are of the CARR family from Belfont, WV (Braxton County). For those of you with computers who may know something of the CARR family, I've posted the pictures at www.PictureTrail.com/nancyartstudio in an album titled "Ancestors Unknown". The album is at the bottom of the page. If anything was written on the back of the pictures, I've noted that on the picture in the album altho there was very little written (eg Belfont and Walkersville, WV). If anyone can identify these people, I would appreciate names and dates if possible. Thank you for your help. Nancy POWERS BAUMAN, 505 Booth Road, Chapel Hill, NC 27516 e-mail momofstorm@yahoo.com

10. Query re: Two Warren Junior TENNEYS, both born April 18, 1916, Clarksburg, WV. The newly opened WV Culture web site at (http://www.wvculture.org/vrr/va\_mustlogin.aspx), has the WV Vital Statistics for many WV counties and is still in the process of being populated.

In the births listings for Harrison County there is a Warren Jr. TENNEY, b. 18 April 1916, Clarksburg, Harrison Co., WV. The accompanying graphic of the Harrison Birth Book, Pg. 214, lists his parents as Warren and Nellie TENNEY.

The mystery is related to an obituary for a Warren Junior TENNEY, age 83 who died Thursday, July 22, 1999. He was also born in April 18, 1916 in Clarksburg, WV, son of Hugh Lloyd and Sallie DEARING TENNEY. Here is most of his obituary from the Ritchie Gazette, 29 July 1999.

WARREN J. TENNEY

Warren Junior TENNEY, 83, of St. Clara Community (Doddridge County), WV, died Thursday, July 22, 1999. He was born Apr. 18, 1916, in Clarksburg, WV, a son of the late Hugh Lloyd and Sallie DEARING TENNEY. He was retired from the Washington Manufacturing Co., Nashville, TN, as a shipping supervisor for a clothing firm. He was a veteran of World War II, and a member of St. Johannes Lutheran Church, St. Clara. Surviving are his wife of 24 years, Wilda SUMMERS POWELL TENNEY; five daughters, Nancy Carol SPRINGER of Martinsville, VA, Linda TENNEY of Nitro, WV, Peggy Jo SINGLETON of Sardis, WV, Patty Jean HART of Zebulon, NC, and Mary Ann SHAYER of New Milton, WV; three sons, Hugh Warren TENNEY of Nashville, George Luther POWELL of Stonewood, WV, and James Russell POWELL of Clarksburg; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. A memorial service was held at St. Johannes Lutheran Church, St. Clara, with Pastor Linda MUHLY officiating.

It looks like two Warren Junior TENNEYS were born in Clarksburg on the same date of April 18, 1816 with different parents. I have not been able to locate the parents "Warren and Nellie TENNEY" in the 1910, 1920 and 1930 US Census.

The second Warren J. TENNEY and parents Hugh L. and Sallie TENNEY are found in the 1920 and 1930 US Census. Hugh's parents are Charles Edgar TENNEY and Eudora Florence BARNETT.

1920 US Census: Dist. 55, Clarksburg, HarrisonCo., WV, 10-12 January 1920, Broadway Street:

TENNEY, Hugh L. Head age 28, mar, b. WV, parents b. WV, Occ: Glass Factory
, Sallie Wife age 23, mar. b. WV, Parents b. WV
, Warren J. Son age 3 8/12, single, b. WV

This same family shows up in the 1930 US Census living in Clarksburg, but now living on Capital Street.

I would appreciate anyone who has knowledge about the Warren and Nellie TENNEY family to provide the information to the HCPD-L list. Who are their parents? Thank you very much.

11. Seeking family of George STEORTS/STORTS, born near Hagerstown in 1769, died Jane Lew, (W)VA in 1851. Various spellings include STEORTS (least likely), STORTS (later spelling). Earlier spellings may have included STURTZ, STOTZ, and many similar ones.

The following family came to Philadelphia from Germany in 1750: (1) Peter STOTZ, b. Germany; (2) Johannes Christian STOTZ, b. Germany 1711, d. 1791, buried Nazareth, PA; (3) Christian STURTZ/ STORTS II, b. Germany 1737, d. Somerset Co., PA. 1826; (4) John Jacob STURTZ (STORTS), son of Christian II, b. Bucks Co., PA 1763, d. Perry Co. OH. 1852 (This family has an annual reunion in New Lexington, OH.) and (5) Johannes George STURTZ b. Germany 1739 d. America

The others are well documented to date but have not found any records for Johannes George STURTZ, brother of Christian II. There is a record of a Hannes STURT as a private in a Rev. War 3rd Battalion from York Co. PA from 1777 to 1780. Dates and locations are consistent with the little information I have of my gg-gf George STEORTS/STORTS 1769-1851, whose father was supposed to also be named "George, from Germany and soldier under Washington." Trying to see if this is a connection. Would appreciate any help. Linda

12. MALCOMB, John: born 1799-1800 in Monroe County VA; married POTTS, Mary (4/9/1802-12/2/1865) on 11/15/1827 in Bath County VA. Have not been able to connect John to his parents. Have not been able to find when/where he died or where he is buried. He was alive when Mary died as he reported her death. In 1840 & 1850, he was in Highland County. In 1860, he was in Braxton County, which is where Mary died. Of the 10 children (Jonathan Calvin, Joseph, Elizabeth, Cynthia, John Alexander, Caroline, Benjamin, Francis Marion, Robert Warrick, and George Washington), nothing is known about Joseph nor Caroline after the 1850 census with their folks in Highland County. Of the remaining 8, Jonathan, Elizabeth, John, Benjamin, Francis, Robert (1860 only) and George all were in Braxton County for the census records after 1860, although 2 of them switch back and forth in Lewis County. Cynthia married Benjamin MCCOY between 6/1850 census and 5/1855 when she died in Highland County.

There are 3 MALCOMB men listed on the Monroe County census for 1800 - all of them with male children who may be John. We have looked into Highland, Bath and Pendleton Counties, as well as Augusta County, as there were Malcombs in all these areas and John himself is in Bath County to marry Mary so chances are he is there because he has family there someplace.

Mary was daughter to Margaret CLEEK and Benjamin POTTS Jr. of Bath County.

(Last issue of the Journal had our tree listed for further info.)

If anyone has found him and can provide a link to parents or his whereabouts after Mary died in 1865, it would be hugely appreciated. Nancy MALCOMB, nimlkpt@verizon.net, 290 Hawley Street, Lockport NY 14094-2710

18. This is one of my highest brick walls. I've posted a query previously and still no definitive answer. One of the problems is that WILSON was a quite common name in early western Virginia.

Eliza Ann WILSON was my mother's paternal grandmother. She was born in Lewis Co. 4 Apr 1835, the daughter of Samuel H and Margaret [SIMS] WILSON. She married Jeremiah J. EDMAN in Lewis Co. 11 Aug 1853. Jerry and Eliza were enumerated in Lewis Co. in 1860. One child was born in Lewis Co., but died in infancy. Then the Civil War started and Jerry enlisted in the 34th VA Inf, was discharged due to illness and enlisted a second time. Sometime during the war, Eliza left Lewis Co. and went to Augusta Co., where my grandfather and 3 other children were born. In 1870, the family was enumerated in Augusta Co. census. They then came back across the mountains and settled in Gilmer Co., where 4 more children were born in and after 1873. Jerry died in Gilmer Co. in 1901, and Eliza went to Calhoun Co. to live with my grandfather, whose wife had died, leaving him with 5 young children. Eliza died in 1907, and she and Jerry are buried at Roseville Cemetery near Tanner in Gilmer Co.

I have information and proof of Margaret SIMS' parentage, but I have not been able to find anything about Samuel WILSON's parents. There were 3 heads of household named Samuel WILSON in 1850 Lewis Co. census, including my ancestor. In 1860, the family was in Ritchie Co., and in 1870 they were in DeKalb Dist., Gilmer Co. In 1880, they were in Calhoun Co., Center Dist. In all of these censuses, Samuel's birth place was given as VA, but in 1880, it says his parents were born in IR. In this census, his daughter said Samuel was born in PA and Margaret in VA. I have found no further record of Samuel, but there is one deed from Margaret and her son, John, after 1880, which may indicate Samuel had died. I know some of my mother's WILSON kin lived in Calhoun or Gilmer and visited my family when I was a child, but I don't remember the names except an "Uncle Billy WILSON." I would appreciate any bit of information anyone has. Lillian DODD, 355 Rockaway Rd., Charleston, WV 25302 Phone (304) 344-4514
